

Kewl is a great vocalist.

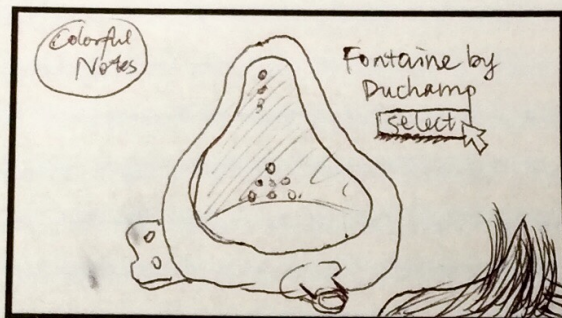

But Kewl can't draw.

Kewl wishes she can translate her music into art

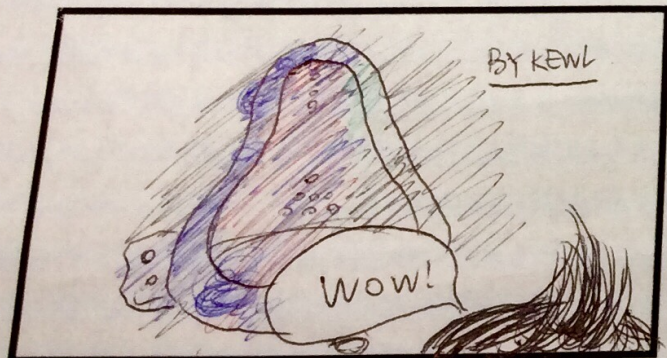

Kewl records her song on the "Colorful Notes" Website.

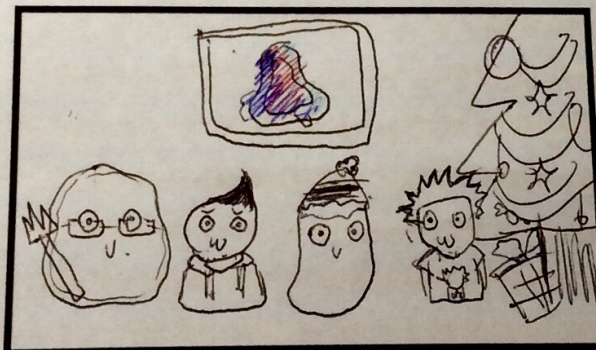

Kewl chooses a postmodern art as the base of her creation.

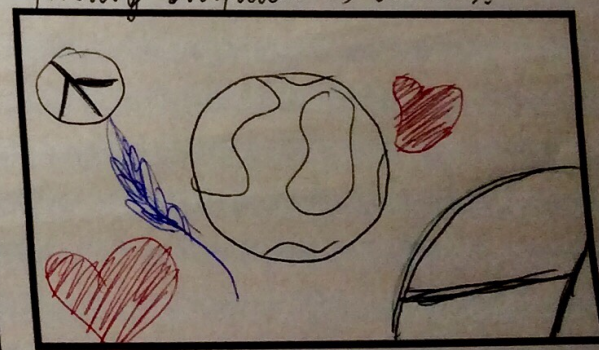

Her music is analyzed based on pitch, chord, strength and tempo and finally outputted as colours.

THE TRANSLATION WORKED!
KEWL TRANSLATED HER SONG
INTO A COLORFUL BEAUTIFUL PAINTING!

KEWL and her roommates love the painting so much that they hang it in their dorm and have thanksgiving dinner with it.

Translation from Kewl's music to painting makes our planet more peaceful and loving.
